
Index

- Adaptation, of society to progress, 143–145, 193, 195–197. See also Progress myth
- Aesthetic motive, 42, 52, 100, 115, 181
- Agassi, Joseph, 42, 81, 87–89, 99–101
- Aitken, Hugh G. J., 183–184, 186, 189n47
- Allen, F. R., 147n44
- Allison, David Kite, 191
- Ambience. See also Design-ambient relationship cultural, xxi, 7
as nonsystemic, 197
technological, 6, 32, 173–174
- Applied science hypothesis. See also Knowledge, technological; Science: applied, hypothesis of; Science-technology relationship critiques, 99–103
debate about, 95–103
and technical skill, 118
- Appropriate technology, 159, 178
- Artifact, 87–90, 125, 136, 166, 200 culture as, 192, 198
defined, 71–72
as enduring, 156–157
engineering or scientific theory as, 87–90, 108
as inflexible, 125
- Autonomous technology, xxii, 7, 134–148, 193, 201. See also Determinism, technological; Progress myth
- Bacon, Francis, 162–164, 163n7
- Bailes, K. E., 149, 151–152, 157
- Baranson, Jack, 128n13, 129–130, 178n32
- Beck, Ludwig, 9
- Bedini, Silvio A., 56n49, 67–68, 92
- Bias. See also Vested interests of historians, 22–24, 26, 36
male, 180
Western, xvi, 25, 27–32, 146–148
- Billington, David P., 183–184
- Boorstin, Daniel J., 183, 185
- Braverman, Harry, 71n82
- Bray, Francesca, 179
- Brittain, James E., 41, 90n13, 113–114
- Brody, David, 189, 189n47
- Brown, Shannon R., 131, 134, 178
- Bryant, Lynwood, 41, 44–46, 49, 51, 53, 55n47, 58–59, 66–68, 72–73, 90, 92, 105, 155
- Buchanan, Scott, 93, 138–139, 142
- Bulliet, Richard W., 182–183
- Bunge, Mario, 86–87, 96–99, 129, 141–143, 163
- Burke, John G., 106n55, 157, 180n35
- Burlingame, Roger, 4
- Burdny Conference on Science and Technology, 83–84, 95
- Bush, C. G., 71n82
- Business history, 182, 188
- Butterfield, Herbert, 166n15
- Cain, Louis P., 63, 106
- Calder, Ritchie, 128n13, 178n32
- Capitalism, 75, 132, 164
critique of, 179–180, 184
and standardization, 76n90
and systems approach, 76–78
- Cardwell, Donald S. L., 62, 88n11, 92–93, 99n39, 183–184, 186
- Carver, J. Scott, 77n91
- Certitude, obsession with, 163

- Chandler, Alfred D., Jr., 46n22, 190
 Chapin, Seymour L., 44n15, 53n41, 55n47, 157–158
 Clark, Charles J., 54n44, 75–76, 106
 Clarke, W. Norris, S.J., 138–139
 Collins, James, 163n4
 Colonialism, 124, 133, 178
 Communism, 132
 Community
 historical, 4, 17, 18–26
 scientific, 93–94, 100, 103
 studies, 187, 189, 201
 technological, 93–94, 100, 103
 “Company history,” xix, 146, 165, 175. See also Success stories
 Comparative studies of technology, 191 Concepts, governing contrasting styles of, 76
 in development, 46–49
 in systems model, 69–79
 Concepts, technological, as enduring, 155–156
 Condit, Carl, 1, 121n1
 Consensus in TC, 89, 121–122, 167
 Consequences, second order, 199
 Constant, Edward W., Jr., 51–52, 55n47, 64, 70, 109, 155–156, 183, 185–186, 191
 Constituency. See Design constituency; Impact constituency; Maintenance constituency; Successful technologies Contextual history, 8–9, 14–18, 32–33, 84, 102, 121–122, 135, 148, 154n66, 160–163, 181, 184–188, 190–192, 198, 201 debate over methodology, 5
 defined, 11, 164–165
 vs. progress myth, 25, 200
 in recent SHOT monographs, 187–192
 summary, 166–173
 and systems approach, 79–81
 Corporate strategies, 122
 Cost factors, 72
 Cowan, Ruth Schwartz, 176, 180, 192
 Creativity, scientific vs. technological, 101
 “Cultural lag,” theory of, 143. See also Determinism, technological; Progress myth Cultural values, 129, 134–148, 158–161, 174
 Culture, xvi–xviii, 190, 199–200
 as artifact, 192
 belief systems of, 96 conflict in technology transfer, 177–178
 defined, 122, 129
 hindrance to progress, 128–129, 144–145, 164
 non-Western, 129
 value conflicts within, 160
 Western, 132
 world view of, 131, 190
 Curiosity, as motive for science, 86–87
 Dalrymple, Dana, 63, 67, 127–128
 Daniels, George, 135, 164–165
 Data
 in development, 73, 106
 institutionalized search for, 107 problematic, 105–107, 174
 in science, 88
 Daumas, Maurice, 9
 Descartes, 163
 Design-ambient relationship, 5, 7, 32–33, 102, 121, 123, 127, 130–131, 139, 148, 154, 187, 201
 and development, 167–168
 as dysfunctional, 197
 and emerging technology, 60–82
 and engineering theory, 111
 and innovation, 168
 as integration, xxii, 6, 150, 161, 163, 165–166, 174, 184, 188, 192, 201
 and invention, 167
 as juxtaposition, 163
 proposed model of, 192–201
 in recent SHOT monographs, 181–192
 and science-technology relationship, 169–170
 summary, 166–173
 vs. systems approach, 80–82, 169, 193
 and technical tradition, 79–81, 168–169
 in technological knowledge, 103–104, 120 and technological momentum, 171
 and technology transfer, 170–171
 Design constituency, 194–195. See also Successful technologies vested interests of, 195, 198–199
 Design constraints, 192, 197
 Design stage, 194–195. See also Impact constituency; Maintenance constituency; Three-constituency model of successful technologies

- flexibility of, 197
- Determinism, technological, xxi, 5, 134–148, 154, 163n3. See also Autonomous technology; Progress
myth
- ahistorical nature of, 164
- attraction of the model, 148
- demanding societal adaptation, 143–145
- fixed sequence of, 171–172
- governed by efficiency norm, 136–139
- implying Western dominance, 146–148, 178
- success story format, 145–146, 171, 175, 188
- Development, 26, 45–50, 72, 75–76, 77, 79–81, 84
- business setting for, 46
- contrast with invention, 49–50
- cost factors in, 46, 168
- defined, 39
- and design-ambient relationship, 50, 168–169
- and engineering theory, 110
- goal-directed, 46–49, 150n57
- linguistic origins of, 50, 56–61
- military setting for, 46, 48
- and problematic data, 106
- “research and development,” 49, 58
- scientific dimensions of, 90, 103–105
- systemic, 72–73
- using test models, 45–46, 73
- DeWalt, Billie R., 147n51, 159, 168n18,
178–179, 188n46
- Dexter Prize winners, xxi, 182–187
- Dibner, Bern, 3n5
- Diffusion, 116 (defined), 123
- Discipline of history of technology, origin of, xix, 2n2, 24. See also Technology and Culture
- D’Onofrio-Flores, Pamela M., 192
- Donovan, Arthur, 118n75, 189n50
- Dorn, Harold, 131–132, 134, 177–178, 180
- Dornberger, Walter R., 15–18, 45,
59n56, 62, 115–116
- Dresbeck, Leroy J., 179
- Drucker, Peter F., 4, 69, 128n13,
178n32
- Dryden, Hugh L., 92
- Dublin, Thomas, 185, 189n47
- Dunlavy, Colleen A., 8n25, 15n42, 22n63, 166n14
- Durbin, Paul T., 179
- Economic factors, 7, 79, 122, 128, 133, 156–157, 169, 174, 179, 185
- Economic history, 12, 182
- Economic institutions, 190
- Economy, 131
- as systemic, 76–78
- Edelstein, Sidney M., 118–119
- Efficiency, as norm for technological success, 136–139
- Ellul, Jacques, 4, 10, 130, 136–139, 142, 144
- Emerging technology, xxi, 35, 37, 188,
201. See also Design-ambient
relationship; Development; Innovation; Invention; Systems approach to emerging technology;
Technological support network;
Tradition, technical
- contrasted with science-technology
theme, 84–85
- as theme in TC, 35n1, 174, 185–186
- Engineering theory, 107–114, 170, 174
- as artifact, 108–109
- contrasted with problematic data, 110–111
- contrasted with technical skill, 89, 116–118
- defined, 108
- and design-ambient tension, 110–111
- and development, 110
- and innovation, 109
- institutional context of, 110–113, 190
- as language, 110–113
- vs.* skill, 113–114, 117, 119–120
- and technical tradition, 111, 113
- Esper, Thomas, 159, 176
- Externalist history, 5, 13, 17, 32–33, 135, 184
- influenced by contextual history, 17, 172
- tension with internalist history, 185
- Failure, studies of, 5, 175
- Feibleman, James K., 67–71, 99n38,
115, 164n6
- Feldhaus, Franz M., 9
- Feller, Irwin, 54, 124n6, 157–158
- Ferguson, Eugene S., 7, 135, 138–139,
142, 145–146, 149, 155n66, 160,
165, 175

- Finch, James Kip, 4, 44n16
- Flexibility of design, 168–169, 197, 200 of technical designs, 195
- Fox, Robert, 43, 123–124
- Frake, Charles O., 37n2
- Frankel, J. P., 179
- Frazier, Arthur H., 65
- Freedom as norm for technology, 138
- Freire, Paulo, 198n62
- Fries, Russell I., 131
- Gadamer, Hans-Georg, 23, 163n4
- Gearhard, Sally, 71n82
- Gender and technology, 180–192. See also Women and technology
- Geographical parameters in TC articles, 27–28
- Gilfillan, S. C., 4, 11–12, 56
- Gille, Bertrand, 9
- Gilligan, Carol, 71n82, 180n36
- Glick, Thomas F., 116
- Goldschmidt, Arthur, 128–130, 144–145
- Gorman, Mel, 133, 178
- Government, 122, 133, 174, 191 regulating technology, 122, 131, 157 technical policies of as enduring, 157
- Grontkowski, Christine, 163n4
- Gutman, Herbert, 165n13, 190, 199n64
- Hacker, Barton, 119, 132–134, 178
- Hafter, Daryl, 118n75, 189n50
- Hall, A. Rupert, 4, 10, 91, 99n38, 121
- Hall, R. Cargill, 48
- Hanieski, John F., 109–110
- Harris, John R., 117
- Hayami, Yujiro, 54, 123n3, 124n6,
 125–128, 128n13, 131
- Heilbroner, Robert L., 61–62, 99n33,
 140–143, 164–165, 179
- Hermeneutics, xx, 18
- Herum, Floyd L., 76–77
- Hewlett, R. G., 59, 86
- Hill, D. R., 182–184
- Hindle, Brooke, 3, 75
- Hindsight, as historiographical problem, 68, 175
- Hindsight–TRACES debate, 95–96
- Historiographical articles in TC, 7–8, 13–14, 33, 135
- History, as communal, 18–26
- History of Science Society, and SHOT,
 1, 3, 83, 181–182
- History of technology
 marginal status of, 165
 methodological consensus of, 85n3
- Holley, I. B., Jr., 143
- Hounshell, David, 42, 53n39, 149, 151, 155–157, 160, 165n13, 199n58
- Howland, W. E., 144, 146
- Hughes, Thomas P., 1, 48–49, 54,
 58n55, 59, 70, 71n82, 74, 87,
 111–113, 121n1, 131, 133, 149–152,
 158, 160, 183–184, 186, 191, 195n60
- Hunter, Louis C., 6, 11, 145, 156, 163, 175, 183, 186
- Hypotheses
 role in scientific theory, 87–88
 in TC articles, 14–16, 136–137
- Impact constituency. See also Successful technologies
 defined, 198
 as elusive, 198–199
 including design and maintenance
 constituencies, 199
 world view of, 198
- Industrial archaeology, 182
 “Industrial Revolution,” 32, 148
- Inertia. See Momentum
- Innovation, 7, 16, 50–55, 72, 74, 77, 79–81, 84
 contrast with invention, 51–53
 corporate and military setting, 53–54
 defined, 39
 and design–ambient relationship, 50, 169
 diffusion of, 54–55
 economic incentives for, 52–54
 and engineering theory, 109
 linguistic origins of term, 56 marginal vs. breakthrough, 194
 and methodological style, 59–60
 and science, 91
 standardization in theory of, 53–54
 verification of, 55
- Inouye, Arlene, 159
- Institutional history, 185, 187, 190–191, 201
- Internalist style, 5, 7–11, 14–18, 32–33, 56, 79, 121, 124, 135, 139, 173, 182–185, 187
 influenced by contextual history, 172–173
 tension with externalist history, 185
- Intimacy, as basis for technical skill, 114–115
- Invention, 40–45, 72, 75, 77, 79–81, 84, 151

- as abstract concept, 43–45
- as act of communication, 40–41, 168
- breakthrough vs. marginal, 45, 51–53, 65–68, 70–71, 80, 155–156
- contrasted with development, 49–50
- creative act of, 41–42, 52, 73, 76, 81
- cultural context of, 65, 168
- defined, 42
- and design-ambient relationship, 50, 168
- intellectual background for, 65
- linguistic origins of the term, 55–56
- and methodological style, 59–60
- motives for, 42–43, 52
- and “reverse salient,” 74
- scientific background of, 90
- and scientific concepts, 103–105
- simultaneous, 140
- verification of, 40, 56, 124
- “Invention-development-innovation” model
 - and methodological style, 59–60
 - origins of the term, 55–61
 - and temporal profile of TC articles, 60
- Inventor, 76, 168
 - intellectual background of, 43
 - motives of, 42–43, 168, 184
- Jenkins, Reese V., 43, 183, 185–186, 190
- Jensen, John H., 131, 133–134, 159, 176, 178
- Jeremy, David J., 53, 73–75, 157–158, 183, 185–186
- Jones, Daniel P., 54, 117n73, 159, 176
- Jones, Howard Mumford, 4, 23, 135, 145, 175
- Joravsky, David, 135, 142n43, 179
- Josephson, Matthew, 163
- Journals, technical, 66–67
- Kahn, Arthur D., 163n4, 180n35
- Kasson, John, 118n75, 185
- Kay, Russell, 179
- Keller, Alexander G., 55
- Keller, Evelyn Fox, 71n82, 163n4, 180n36
- Keohane, Nannerl O., 163n3
- Kerker, Milton, 15, 66, 68, 104
- Kevles, Daniel J., 17, 99n38, 149, 151–152, 158, 176
- King, Ynestra, 71n82
- Klem, Friedrich, 9
- Knowledge, technological, xxi, 101, 103–120, 170, 174, 201. See also Data; Engineering theory; Scientific concepts; Skill, technical
 - based on design-ambient tension, 103–104, 120
 - distinct from scientific knowledge, 101
 - includes science-technology theme, 101, 120
 - and problematic data, 105–107
 - restructuring scientific concepts, 103–105
- Kohlmeyer, Fred W., 76–77
- Koppes, Clayton R., 183, 185–186, 191
- Kranzberg, Melvin, 1, 2n3, 4, 6, 121, 162n2, 163, 165n13, 166–167
- Kren, Claudia, 124
- Labor history, 189n47, 201. See also Workers
- Labor History Society, and SHOT, 189
- Labor-management relationships, 116–118, 133, 176, 189–190, 193–195
- Language
 - cultural influences on, xviii
 - historical, xviii, 2, 26, 163, 166, 173
 - technological, xviii, 24
- Layton, Edwin T., Jr., 7, 89, 93–94, 95n29, 108–109, 112–113, 183–184, 190
- Leicester, Henry M., 99n38
- Leslie, Stuart W., 46, 106n54, 175–176, 188n46
- Lieberstein, Samuel, 76n91, 176
- Lienhard, John H., 99n38, 148n54
- Luddites, 164
- Machine as system, 72
- McGaw, Judith, 118n75, 189n50
- Mack, Pamela E., 191
- McLuhan, Marshall, 68n77, 130
- McMath, Robert C., 113–114
- Maintenance constituency. See also Design constituency; Impact constituency; Successful technologies defined, 196
 - in momentum stage, 195–198
 - values of, 196
 - vested interests of, 195–196
- Management-worker tension. See Workers: tension with management
- Marxism, 5n14, 10, 142, 179

- Matschoss, Conrad, 9
 May, Rollo, 42n10
 Mayr, Otto, 17, 42, 55n47, 69n78, 83, 90, 94–95, 106, 167, 180
 Meeker, Joseph W., 87n8
 Merchant, Carolyn, 71n82, 180n35 Methodology, historical as communal, 18–26
 debate about, 5
 five modes of in TC, xviii–xxi, 5, 12–18, 84
 Meyer, Stephen, 189, 189n47, 195n59
 Miles, Wyndham D., 73
 Military and technology, 122, 132, 151–152, 191
 Modernization, 146
 Molella, Arthur, 83, 99n39
 Momentum, technological, xxi, 47, 148–161, 195, 198–201. See also Three-constituency model of successful technologies
 defined, 148–154
 as physical metaphor, 154 stage, 195–197
 theme in TC, 148–149
 Montgomery, David, 71n82
 Morality and technology, 136, 146
 Morris, Bertram, 98, 99n38, 137n31
 Multhaus, Robert P., 7, 56n49, 66, 90–91, 94
 Mumford, Lewis, 4, 6, 12, 67n70, 135, 138–139, 162–164, 176
 Museums, 9n26, 56

 Nature, control over, 140, 143, 162, 164
 Needham, Joseph, 179n33
 Negotiation vs. standardization, 76n90
 Nevitt, Barrington, 68n77
 Newcomen Society, 9
 Nisbet, Robert, 163n4
 Noble, David F., 46n22, 116n69, 118n75, 189, 198n62
 Nonhistorical style, 9, 11–12, 14, 84, 135, 178n32
 Non-Western culture, 129
 Non-Western technologies, 178–179
 Normal technology, defined, 200

 Ogburn, William Fielding, 4, 11, 56, 143
 Oldroyd, D. R., 166n15

 Organization of American Historians, 187
 Overfield, Richard A., 94

 Packer, James E., 116
 Paradigm
 historical, 166, 187
 technological, 51–52, 155
 Patents, 40–41, 53, 56, 122
 Pearson, Lee M., 68
 Perkins, John H., 46
 Perrin, Noel, 132n22
 Perry, Robert L., 47
 Peterson, James, 118n75, 189n50
 Pfafflin, Sheila M., 191
 Polanyi, Michael, 163n4
 Porter, Glenn, 165, 188
 Post, Robert C., 52–53, 56n49, 106, 145, 175
 Price, Derek J. DeSolla, 144
 Pris, C., 117
 Production facility as system, 73–75
 Profit motive, 56, 74
 Progress
 adaptation to, 143–145
 scientific, 144
 Progress myth, xvii–xviii, xxi, 25, 129, 134–148, 160, 174, 188, 190, 196–198, 201. See also Determinism, technological alternative to, proposed, 193–201
 as antihistorical, 147–148, 160–161, 164
 vs. contextual history, 25, 200
 defined, 144, 163–166
 fixed sequence of, 140–143, 171–172
 as modern, 141–142
 optimism in, 144
 passivity in, 166
 post-historical, 147
 split of method and context in, 163n3 success story format of, 145–146
 and systems approach, 81
 in TC articles, 173–181
 TC's critique of, 166–173
 Progress talk, xviii, 143, 148, 161, 166, 181, 201
 Pursell, Carroll W., Jr., 159–160, 164n9

 Questions seldom asked. See .
 Capitalism: critique of; Non-Western technologies; Roads not taken;
 Technology transfer: cultural tensions in;
 Women and technology: perspective of, omitted in TC;
 Workers: perspective of omitted in TC

- Rae, John B., 1, 4, 92, 99n38
 Regulation, governmental, 122, 131, 157
 Reingold, Nathan, 83, 87n8, 94, 99n39
 Religion and technology, 81, 188
 "Research and development," 49, 58
 Reti, Ladislao, 40, 56n49
 Rigidity of technical designs, 170, 195–198, 200
 Roads not taken, 175
 Robinson, Eric, 40–41, 56n49, 83
 Roland, Alex, 46n22, 124, 191
 Rosegger, Gerhard, 131, 133–134, 159, 176, 178
 Rosenberg, Nathan, 54, 57–58, 69n79, 77–78, 124n3, 125–128, 128n13, 134
 Rosenbloom, Richard S., 116–117, 176, 179
 Rothschild, Joan, 71n82, 180n37, 191
 Rürup, Reinhard, xviii, 7, 99n38, 114–115, 134–135, 143, 145–148, 154n66, 165, 175–176, 179, 182n39, 189n48
 Ruttan, Vernon, 54, 123n3, 124n6, 125–128, 128n13, 131
- Scherer, F. M., 45, 53, 56–58
 Schmookler, Jacob, 11, 56
 Schon, Donald A., 68n77, 116n68, 194n57
 Schumpeter, Joseph Alois, 53, 56–57
- Science applied, hypothesis of, xvii, xxi, 85, 91, 114, 118, 129, 141–143, 163n3, 163–164, 169–170 as background for invention, 90, 103–105
 in development, 90, 103–105
 objective and value-free, 96, 102, 141–142, 163
 as theoretical artifact, 87–90
- Science-technology relationship, xxi, 7, 16, 83–103, 140–141, 174, 181–182, 184–186 in applied-science debate, 95–103 contrasts between, 86–90
 and design-ambient integration, 169–170
vs. emerging technology theme, 84–85
 as inappropriate theme, 85 interactions between, 90–94
- Scientific communities, 93–94
 Scientific concepts
 as contributions to technology, 103–105
 as dependent on technology, 92–93, 103–105
 Scientific curiosity, 86–87
 "Scientific Revolution," 32, 97, 141, 164
 Scientific theory, 88, 174
 Sclove, Richard, 164n8
 Senility stage, 197–198, 200. See also Design stage; Momentum, technological: stage; Three-constituency model of successful technologies
- Shaiken, Harley, 116n69, 118n75
 Shared discourse, xix, xxi, xxiii, 1–2, 5, 15, 26, 29, 33, 38, 55, 58, 85, 122, 133, 167, 176 creating "invention-development-innovation" model, 58–60 creation by contextual historians, xviii
 defined, 18–26
 SHOT debate over methodology, 5, 12–18
 TC as forum for, 4, 16–17, 24, 36, 99, 120, 122, 135–136, 167, 174
- Shelby, Lon R., 119
- SHOT
 annual meetings, xxiii, 167
 constituencies, 2
 leadership, xix, 2–3, 167
 monographs, recent, 181–192
 origins of, xix, 1–5, 2n2, 8, 24, 32–33 relations with other organizations, 181–182, 189
- Shriver, Donald W., Jr., 128n13, 130–131, 178n32
 Sinclair, Bruce, 54n44, 63, 132–134, 178, 183, 185–186, 190
 Singer, Charles E. J., 10, 121
 Sioux, xvi–xviii
 Site selection in historical research, xxi, 26–33
- Sivin, Nathan, 179n33
 Skill, technical, 114–120, 170, 174. See also Workers: skilled and applied science hypothesis, 118 basis for technical judgments, 115–116
 and design-ambient relationship, 115–116
vs. engineering theory, 89, 116–118 intimacy and, 114–115
 as traditional knowledge, 118–119
- Skolimowski, Henryk, 88n10, 102, 105n51

- Skramstad, Harold, 106n55
 Sleeswyk, Andre Wegener, 179
 Smith, Adam, 69, 79, 164, 180
 Smith, Cyril Stanley, 4, 42, 87–89, 99–101, 115
 Smith, Merritt Roe, 46n22, 54, 76n90, 116, 118n75, 133n25, 165, 187–189, 191, 199n64
 Smith, Thomas M., 48, 59, 104, 158, 195n60
 Social Darwinism, 198n63
 Society for the History of Technology. See SHOT Standardization, 116, 119, 193, 200. See also Systems approach to emerging technology and capitalism, 76n90
 as hierarchical, 180n35
 and systems, 76n90
 Storyteller, historian as, xv, 201
 Style, technological, 199–200
 Success, technological, 136–139
 defined, 175n23
 Successful technologies, 193–198. See also Design stage; Momentum, technological: stage; Senility stage; Three-constituency model of successful technologies in progress myth, 198
 Success stories, xix, 5, 145–146, 171, 175, 188. See also “Company history”
 Sun, E-Tu Zen, 179
 Susskind, Charles, 59, 159
 Systems, as flexible and rigid, 150–151, 191
 Systems approach to emerging technology, 69–82, 84, 148, 162, 174, 191, 199, 201
 as anti-negotiation, 71–72 applications of at different levels of complexity, 72 (see also Development: systemic; Economy: as systemic; Machine as system; Production facility as system; Transmission network as system)
 and capitalism, 71n82, 75–79
 and contextual history, 79–81
 contrasted with technical tradition, 71
 defined, 39
 and design-ambient relationship, 80–82, 169, 193
 fostering emerging technology, 70–79 governing concept in, 69–72, 80
 hierarchical, 71–72, 79, 81, 191
 historiographic analysis of, 79–82
 and invention, 70–71
 and standardization, 71n82, 75–77, 76n9, 79, 191
 vs. women’s perspective, 71n82 workers’ perspective, avoidance of, 71n82
 Tascher, John, 159n75
 Taxonomies of analysis, xx, 12. See also Appendix 1
 Taylor, George R., 163
 Technical concepts, as enduring, 155–156
 Technological
 community, 93–94, 100, 103
 determinism, xvii–xviii, xxi, 5, 25, 129, 134–148, 154, 160, 163n3, 174, 188 enthusiasm, as enduring, 158 knowledge, xxi, 101, 103–120, 170, 174, 201 language, xviii, 24
 momentum, xxi, 47, 148–161, 195, 198–201
 style, 199–200
 success, norm of, 136–139
 Technological support network, 61–64, 77, 79, 132–133, 174
 contrasted with technical tradition, 68–69
 defined, 39, 61, 64
 impact of emerging technology on, 63
 impact on emerging technology, 61–63
 in transfer of technology, 124–128 Technology
 as applied science, 85, 95–99
 constituencies of successful: see Design constituency; Impact constituency; Maintenance constituency flexibility and rigidity of, 170, 195–198, 200 and government, 122, 131, 157
 legitimizing function of, 153
 as local-specific, 193
 and military, 122, 132, 151–152, 191
 as modern, 134–148 (see also Determinism, technological; Progress myth) and morality, 136, 146
 as pragmatic, 86–87, 97
 and religion, 81, 188
 types treated in TC articles, 29–30

- used in the singular, 144, 197
 as value-free, 129
 as value-laden, 129–134, 166, 189–190, 197–200
- Technology-culture relationship, 121–161 passim. See also Determinism, technological;
 Momentum, technological;
 Technology transfer
- Technology-science relationship. See Science; Science-technology relationship
- Technology and Culture (TC)*
 authors, xix, 2n2, 3, 5, 8
 forum for shared discourse, 4, 16–17, 24, 36, 99, 120, 122, 135–136, 167, 174 inclusive publishing policy, xix, 8, 16, 166 origins, 1–5
 title as commitment to contextualism, 5, 121, 163, 181
- Technology transfer, xxi, 16, 26, 55, 123–134, 199, 201
 and colonialism, 124, 133
 cultural tensions in, 128–134, 177–178, 185
 and design-ambient integration, 170
 defined, 123
 recipient culture's perspective on, 177 related to technological support networks, 124–128, 134
 vehicles of, 124, 131–132, 134
 verification of, 123–124, 134
- Temporal parameters of TC articles, 26–29, 31–34
- Thackray, Arnold, 83–84, 95, 187
- Theme, xix, 147
 defined, 19–20, 36–37
 consensus about, 26, 84–85, 89, 121, 133, 171, 173
 creation of, 57–61
- Theobald, Robert, 81n95, 128n13,
 129–130, 178n32
- Theory. See also Engineering theory;
 Science: as theoretical artifact engineering vs. skill, 89
 scientific vs. technological, 89
- Thomas, Donald E., Jr., 117n73, 176, 180
- Thompson, E. P., 71n82, 165n13,
 199n64
- Three-constituency model of successful technologies, 194–201. See also Design constituency; Impact constituency; Maintenance constituency; Successful technologies
 as locus for thematic discourse, 200–201
- Tortelli, Giovanni, 9
- Tozer, Lowell, 164n9
- Tradition, technical, 64–69, 76–77, 79, 84, 194
 as communal, 65
 contrasted with systems approach, 80
 contrasted with technological support network, 68–69
 defined, 39
 and design-ambient integration, 80–81, 169
 as fostering inventive act, 65 governing concept of, 64–65
 as hindrance to invention, 67
 impact of emerging technology on, 68
 impact on emerging technology, 64–68
 and marginal vs. breakthrough inventions, 65–66
 verification of, 67
- Transmission network as system, 75–76
- Trescott, Martha Moore, 191
- Usher, Abbott Payson, 4, 12, 56–57, 62, 66, 163
- Values, 129–134. See also Design
 constituency; Impact constituency; Maintenance constituency conflicts about, 160
 cultural, 134–148, 158–161, 174
 cultural as hindrance to progress, 128–129, 141–142, 144–145, 164, 166
 embedded in technical design, 129–134, 166, 189–190, 197–200
 enduring, as theme in TC, 159
- Vanek, Joann, 180n36
- Vested interests. See also Bias of design constituency, 195, 198–199 financial, as enduring, 158 of maintenance constituency, 195–196
- Vincenti, Walter G., 49n30
- Wachsmann, Klaus P., 178
- Wallace, Anthony F. C., 165, 187–189
- Watson-Watt, Sir Robert, 42, 99n38, 146

- Western
 bias, xvi, 25, 27–32
 bias in TC, 27–29, 32, 146–148
 colonialism, xvii, 124, 133, 178 culture, 12, 129, 132, 162–163 technology, xv, xvii, 129, 154, 176, 180, 193
 technology, triumph of, xviii, 146–148, 174, 178
 values in progress myth, 134–148
- Whig history, xviii, xxi, 25, 166. See also Determinism, technological;
 Progress myth
- critiqued by SHOT authors, 166–174, 181–193
 defined, 166n15
 influence of, on TC authors, 173–181
- White, Lynn, Jr., 4, 6, 11, 15, 35,
 37–38, 41–43, 121, 163, 180n35,
 183–184
- Wilkinson, Norman B., 176
- Winner, Langdon, 163n3
- Wise, George, 49n30
- WITH (Women in Technology History), 180
- Women and technology, 180, 201
 perspective of: in recent monographs, 191–192; omitted in TC, 176;
 contrasted with systems approach,
 71n82
- Woodbury, Robert S., 15, 175
- Woodruff, Helga and William, 124n6,
 128n13, 146–147, 178n32
- Workers. See also Labor history
 perspective of omitted in TC, 176–177
 perspective of in recent monographs, 189–190
 resistance to technical design, 190
 skilled, 113, 116–119, 131 tension with management, 81, 116–118, 133, 176, 189–190,
 193–195
- World view, cultural, 131, 190. See also Three-constituency model of successful technologies
- Wulff, Hans Eberhard, 182–183
- Znachko-Iavorskii, Igor L., 179
- Zuboff, Shoshanah, 71n82, 198n62,
 199n64
- Zvorikine, A., 4, 97n34, 99n38,
 142n43, 179